The possible course of actions of the Employer may be one or more of the measures prescribed in sub-clauses 13.4 and 13.5. If an Employee Improvement Plan (EIP) is the proposed action (see sub-clause 13.4), a draft of the EIP shall be provided at this time;
- (iv) whether the Employee is directed not to attend the workplace (on pay), or to perform alternate duties, or to do or refrain from doing any other thing, and the period for which this will occur. In compelling circumstances such a direction may be given prior to the issue of the written advice; and
- (v) the details of a proposed investigation, if any.

13.3 The formal meeting

- (a) At the meeting the Employee will be provided with an opportunity to seek clarification or respond to:
 - (i) the Concern(s);

 - (i) describes the Concern(s);

 - (vi) provides a copy of clause 13.
- (b) Upon making a final decision regarding the outcome of the EIP, the Employer shall advise the Employee in writing as to whether:
- (i) the Employer's Concern(s) have been satisfactorily addressed and the EIP is concluded; or
 - (ii) sufficient progress has not been made to conclude the EIP and the Employer intends to extend the period of the EIP; or
 - (iii) the Employer proposes to implement one of the measures prescribed by sub-clause 13.5.
- (c) Any incremental progression which would occur in a period during which an Employee is subject to an EIP shall, subject to the Employer's discretion, be withheld until the Employee is notified that the EIP has been concluded in accordance with clauses 13.4(b)(i), 13.5(b) or 13.5(c). Any such amount withheld shall be back-paid upon the conclusion of the EIP, other than where the EIP concludes in termination of employment under clause 13.5(d).

13.5 Outcomes

- (a) Before making a decision to take one of the steps in this sub-clause, the Employer must advise the Employee of the reason for and the proposed course of action, and provide the Employee with an opportunity to respond.

(d) Termination

The Employer may terminate the Employee's employment (on notice, or summarily) in accordance with clause 19 of this Agreement.

13.6 Renewed concerns regarding performance

If, following the conclusion of an EIP or following a warning, the Employer again has Concern(s) about matters previously dealt with in respect of an Employee under this clause, the Employer may renew the process in respect of those concerns without first holding the discussions set out in clause 13.2(a).

13.7 Potential criminal conduct

Where allegations against an Employee which are being handled under this clause are also the subject of a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings, the Employer is not required to delay or cease the process under this clause but the Employer may exercise its discretion to do so.

14. Professional Registration and Working with Children

- (a) This clause shall apply in respect of Employees that require professional registration (including Permission to Teach) or a Working with Children Check in order to perform their role.
- (b) Where, for any reason, an Employee does not have the required registration or Working with Children Check (or other evidence sufficient to permit them to work) (the Necessary Authority), the Employer may:
- (i) give the Employee, generally not less than seven days, to obtain the Necessary Authority; and
 - (ii) give the Employee an opportunity to explain any extenuating circumstances and clarify any matter.
- (c) Where, following the steps above, the Employer is satisfied that the lack of Necessary Authority is a result of the actions or omissions of the Employee, and not due to any extenuating circumstances, the Employer may stand down the Employee without pay until the Employee satisfies the Employer that he or she has the Necessary Authority.

15. Variation of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance for part-time Employees

15.1 Variations

Note: This clause does not apply to School Services Officers in relation to changes to the ordinary starting and finishing times of work (see instead clause 74.12).

- (a) An Employer cannot make a variation to a part-time Employee's number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance unless it can be demonstrated that such a variation is required as a result of change in enrolment, curriculum, program, organisation, structure, technology or funding.
- (b) In reaching the decision to make a variation to the number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance of the part-time Employee, the Employer will:
 - (i) Consult with the part-time Employee and give due consideration to the impact of the variation on the part-time Employee's family and personal responsibilities as well as other relevant circumstances;
 - (ii) Advise the part-time Employee whether the proposed variation is required because of a change in enrolment, curriculum, program, organisation, structure, technology or funding; and
 - (iii) Advise the part-time Employee of the proposed change to hours and/or days and/or times of attendance in writing.
- (c) An Employer cannot vary the number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance of a part-time Employee unless:
 - (i) the Employer has complied with clause 15.1(b) and the part-time Employee agrees in writing; or
 - (ii) the Employer has complied with clause 15.1(b) and eight weeks' written notice of the variation is given to the part-time Employee concerned (Employers are encouraged to give 10 weeks' notice). In the absence of the required notice, and where the change involves a drop in salary, the part-time Employee's salary will be maintained at its former level for the period of the notice not given.

15.2 Significant reduction in hours

- (a) Where an Employer proposes to reduce the hours of work (FTE) of an Employee, and either:
 - (i) the reduction in working hours is significant; or
 - (ii) the Employee has had their hours of work reduced within the preceding two years, and the cumulative reduction in working hours is significant,

The Employee may either:

- (i) accept the proposed reduction in working hours; or
- (ii) elect to receive a severance payment.
- (b) An Employee shall have 21 days in which to confirm in writing to the Employer whether they accept the proposed reduction in working hours, or to elect to terminate their employment and receive a severance payment.
- (c) In the event that an Employee does not advise the Employer in writing within 21 days of their decision to accept the proposed reduction or to receive a severance payment, then the proposed reduction in hours will be deemed to have been accepted.
- (d) In the event that an Employee gives notice in writing that they have elected to receive a severance payment, the Employer shall provide the Employee written notice of termination of their employment in accordance with clause 19.
- (e) Where the part-time Employee elects to receive a severance payment, the Employer shall pay in accordance with the following table:

Period of continuous service	Under 45 years of age	45 years of age or over
Less than 1 year	Nil	Nil
1 year but less than 2 years	4.0 weeks' pay	5.0 weeks' pay
2 years but less than 3 years	7.0 weeks' pay	8.75 weeks' pay
3 years but less than 4 years	10.0 weeks' pay	12.5 weeks' pay

6 years and over	16.0 weeks' pay	20.0 weeks' pay
15 years and over	21.0 weeks' pay	25.0 weeks' pay

"continuous service" is defined in accordance with clause 6 – Service continuity

"weeks' pay" means the ordinary rate of pay for the Employee concerned in accordance with clause 5(n).

- (f) Subject to clause 15.2(g), where the entitlement arises because of more than one change of hours, the severance payment will be paid on the highest FTE of the Employee in the preceding two-year period.
- (g) Where a part-time Employee was offered and rejected a severance payment by the Employer in lieu of a significant reduction in the Employee's working hours, and the Employee chose instead to accept a significant reduction in working hours, the Employee cannot claim a severance payment in relation to that reduction in working hours.

16. Consultation

16.1 Purpose of consultation

- (a) These agreed procedures set out a process for registered primary, secondary and special schools.
- (b) The parties acknowledge that staff morale and Employee job satisfaction is enhanced where the views of all Employees are taken into account before decisions are made. The aim of this Agreement is to establish workplace consultative arrangements that ensure the Principal's responsibility, as the Employer's representative, is to make school-based decisions carried out in a framework that enables staff to have input into decisions that affect their working life.
- (c) The Principal, as the Employer's representative, has ultimate administrative and operational responsibility for decisions made at the school level, provided that these decisions are made in accordance with the consultation principles outlined in this clause.
- (d) Consultation means a serious attempt through a fair exchange of views is made in order to reach an understanding and consensus.

For the purpose of this clause, the parties adopt the following comments made by Smith C. in CPSU, the Community and Public Sector Union v Vodaphone Network Pty Ltd (Print PR911257) "Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is about to happen. This is a common misconception. Consultation is providing the individual, or other relevant persons, with a bona fide opportunity to influence the decision maker ... Consultation is not joint decision making or even a negative or frustrating barrier to the prerogative of management to make decisions. Consultation allows the decision making process to be informed, particularly as it may affect the employment prospects of individuals."

- (e) The Principal is responsible for the teaching and learning process within the school. The Principal meets this responsibility in collaboration with staff through a process of consultation, including with the Consultative Committee, in respect to Class Size, Scheduled Class Time and Positions of Leadership.
- (f) Consultation about Class Sizes, Workloads and Positions of Leadership occurs having regard to the professional expectations of Teachers including the following:

 - (iii) two nominees of the Union;
 - (iv) one staff nominee elected by and from the total staff.
- (b) In a multi-campus school the composition of the Consultative Committee may include representatives from each campus, provided the total composition retains the same balance of representatives as a single campus school.

- (c) The specified model will apply unless and until there is an agreed alternative. The Union will be given two weeks' notice prior to a vote being taken.
- (d) Each member may choose to have a proxy.
- (e) The term of office of members and the duration of the model agreed shall be decided at the school but shall be for a minimum of one year and a maximum of three years.

16.3 Procedures

- (a) Meetings of the Consultative Committee may be called by the Principal or by at least three members of the Committee at any time.
- (b) The Consultative Committee shall meet each year as often as required.

- (f) Reasonable notice of meetings will be given and the agenda, motions and relevant papers shall be distributed in sufficient time to allow consultation prior to the meeting.
- (g) Minutes of the meeting shall be made available to the members of the Consultative Committee within two weeks of the date of the meeting.

- (h) Where a Principal makes a decision which is not consistent with the recommendations of the Consultative Committee, the Principal shall provide to the Committee members, in writing, the reasons for the decision.
- (i) Where the Committee decides that insufficient consultation has taken place, this concern should be taken up formally with the Principal.
- (j) Where a grievance arises in relation to the operation of the Committee, clause 22 will apply.

16.4 Information Sharing

To facilitate the consultative process, relevant financial, enrolment and resource details should be provided to members of the Consultative Committee by the Principal. The following clauses list data that should be provided:

- (b) Provided that where the Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein, an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

17.2 Employer's duty to discuss change

- (a) The Employer shall discuss with the Employees affected and their Union, inter alia, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 17.1, the effects the changes are likely to have on Employees and the measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on Employees, and shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the Employees and, where relevant, the Union, in relation to the changes.

- (c) As soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change, the Employer must discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change.
- (d) For the purposes of the discussion, the Employer must provide to the relevant Employees all relevant information about the change, including the nature of the change, information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees and information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees. However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.
- (e) The Employer must invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities. The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

18. Educational initiatives

To facilitate the introduction of educational initiatives through pilot programmes that schools believe can lead to improved teaching and learning outcomes, schools will be able to determine alternative arrangements to those contained in this Agreement, save that no Employee shall be paid at a rate of pay less than those contained in this Agreement nor be required to perform an unfair, unreasonable or excessive workload. Prior to introducing a pilot programme a school is required to develop a detailed proposal identifying the educational initiative(s), the duration of the programme, the desired outcome(s), the consequences for the workload of the staff concerned and the review and evaluation process. In order to implement any initiative under this clause the school will need the agreement of:

- (a) a significant majority of staff affected;

- (d) Employment may be terminated by the Employer giving part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.
- (e) Payment in lieu of notice is calculated by taking the amount of salary an Employee would have received on account of ordinary time which the Employee would have worked during the notice period if the Employee's employment had not been terminated.
- (f) The period of notice in this clause shall apply in the case of an Employee whose employment is for a specified period of time.

19.4 Notice of termination by the Employee

- (a) The notice of termination to be given by an Employee shall be:

19.5 Time off during notice period

Where an Employer has given notice of termination to an Employee, an Employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off shall be taken at a time or times that are convenient to the Employee after consultation with the Employer.

the following procedures will apply.

22.2 Procedure Step 1

Every attempt shall be made to resolve a dispute, in the first instance, by discussions between the individual(s) directly involved at the workplace and the Employer. This does not preclude the right of either party to seek advice from outside the workplace, nor does it necessitate such an approach where this is impracticable.

22.3 Procedure Step 2

When a dispute is not resolved by Step 1, the Employee or the Employer may each seek the assistance of a representative in order that a further attempt can be made to resolve the matter. The Employee representative may include a union official or union delegate.

22.4 Procedure Step 3

- (a) In the event that Steps 1 and 2 fail to resolve the matter, it may be referred by either party to the Commission for its assistance in resolving the matter by conciliation. The matter should not be referred by either party to the Commission prior to the completion of Steps 1 and 2.
- (b) Until the dispute is determined, work shall continue normally in accordance with the custom or practice existing before the dispute arose, while discussions take place.
- (c) No party shall be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuance of work. Health and safety matters are exempted from this sub-clause.

- (i) the Employee is employed for a period of the year less than that worked by other Employees in that classification minus 15 working days; and/or
 - (ii) an Employee is absent on approved unpaid leave in excess of 15 days during the school year, provided that this provision shall not be applied where an Employee has moved from one Employer to another Employer during the school year without breaking continuity of service (as defined in clause 6 – Service Continuity).

- (b) Pro-rata school holiday pay shall be calculated on the following basis:

- (i) Primary School Principals, Deputy Principals, Teachers, Category B Education Support Employees, Category B School Services Officers, School Advisers, Visiting Teachers and Category B Placed Teachers:

$$P = \frac{S \times C}{B} - D$$

Where:

- P is the payment due;
- S is the total salary paid in respect of term weeks, or part thereof;
- B is the number of term weeks, or part thereof, in the school year;
- C is the number of non-term weeks, or part thereof, in the school year;
- D is the salary paid in respect of non-term weeks, or part thereof, that have occurred since the commencement of the school year.
- (ii) For the purposes of this clause a school year means that school's working year for each classification of Employee.
- (iii) Category C Education Support Employees or Category C School Services Officers:

$$\frac{\text{Number of weeks worked}}{45} \times 7 \times \text{Employee's weekly rate of pay}$$ from which result shall be deducted the amount already paid for school term holidays.

For the purposes of this clause a working week is any week in the school year, as defined, regardless of the number of working days in that week.

25.7 Variation of hours or nature of employment

- (a) If during a year, the number of hours of a part-time Employee are changed, in accordance with clause 15 or an Employee changes from part-time to full-time or vice versa, there shall be a proportionate adjustment to amounts payable under clauses 25.2, 25.5 and 25.8 using the formula under clause 25.6(b).
- (b) If an Employee elects to observe a period of Half Pay Leave in accordance with clauses 4(9) to 4(11) of Appendix 1, an Employee's entitlement to school holiday pay under clause 25.5 and leave loading under clause 25.8 will be calculated using the formulas under clauses 25.6(b) and 25.8 as if the Employee did not elect to observe Half Pay Leave and instead observed paid maternity leave or paid adoption leave at their ordinary rate of pay.

25.8 Leave loading

- (a) An Employee who has an entitlement to paid annual leave or school holiday pay in accordance with clauses 25.2(a), 25.2(b), 25.5(a) or 25.5(b) shall receive a loading of 17.5% on four weeks' pay at the Employee's weekly rate of pay.
- (b) The leave loading shall be paid no later than within the last two working weeks of the school year, or at the time of termination of employment as appropriate.
- (c) An Employee who has an entitlement to a pro-rata period of leave or pro-rata school holiday pay shall be entitled to a pro-rata leave loading calculated on the following basis:
- (i) Category A Education Support Employee, Category A and D School Services Officer, Education Officer, Senior Education Officer, School Adviser, Catholic Education Administration Employee or Category A Placed Teacher:

$$\frac{\text{Number of weeks worked}}{48} \times 4 \times 17.5\% \times \text{Employee's weekly rate of pay}$$

- (ii) Primary School Principal, Deputy Principal, Teacher, Category B Education Support Employee, Category B School Services Officer, School Adviser, Visiting Teacher or Category B Placed Teacher:

$$\frac{[\text{Weekly salary} \times 4 \times 17.5\%] \times \text{term weeks worked by the Employee in that school year}}{\text{Total term weeks in that school year}}$$

For example, in the case of an Employee with a weekly salary of $1000 on termination of employment (or at the end of the final term week in the school year) who was employed at the school for 20 of the 38 term weeks in that school year, the calculation will be as follows:

$$\begin{aligned} $1000 \times 4 \times 17.5\% &= $700 \\ $700 \times 20/38 &= $368.42 \end{aligned}$$

- (iii) Category C Education Support Employee and Category C School Services Officer:

$$\frac{\text{Number of weeks worked}}{45} \times 4 \times 17.5\% \times \text{Employee's weekly rate of pay}$$

The Employee's weekly rate of pay for all purposes of this clause shall be the rate applicable to that Employee on 1 December of that year or at the date of termination of employment.

Note: If, under this clause, an Employee forgoes an entitlement to take an amount of annual leave, the Employee's Employer shall deduct that amount from the amount of accrued annual leave credited to the Employee.

- (b) Notwithstanding clause 25.11(a), an Employee is not entitled to forgo an amount of annual leave credited to the Employee by an Employer if the cashing out would result in the Employee's remaining accrued entitlement to annual leave being less than four weeks.

- (a) While an Employee has the right to apply for leave without pay, the granting of such leave is at the discretion of the Employer.
- (b) Leave without pay does not break continuity of service but is not to be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of this Agreement where the period of leave without pay is in excess of 15 days in a school year.
- (c) Leave without pay diminishes the entitlement an Employee would otherwise have to school holidays, annual leave and leave loading under this Agreement for periods of leave without pay in excess of 15 days, in that school year, in direct proportion to the amount of leave without pay taken.

- (i) If an Employee is granted extended leave without pay (i.e. four months or more), the question of the Employee's specific duties on return to work should be considered before the granting of such leave and any arrangements made should be documented. Provided that the Employer has the right to require that an Employee shall recommence duty either on the recommencement day originally approved or at the commencement of the next school term after the notice period expires or at any other time agreed by the Employer and the Employee. Such notice must be given prior to the expiration of the leave and must contain reasons why the required notice was not given in accordance with clause 26.1(c)(ii).
- (iv) If an Employee does not provide written notice of a return to work in accordance with clause 26.1(c)(ii) and no arrangement has been made in accordance with clause 26.1(c)(iii), the Employer shall be entitled to apply, from the date of expiry of the approved leave without pay, the provisions of clause 20.

The Employee who has been stood down may refuse the offer of employment without prejudice to his or her normal employment relationship.
- (b) For the purpose of clause 26.3(a)(vi), "appropriate work" means such work as is available that is capable of being performed by the Employee. Remuneration for such work shall be at the rate of pay applicable to the work being performed.

74.5 Time in lieu

- (a) A School Services Officer with an entitlement under clause 74 may elect, with the consent of the Employer, to take time off in lieu of payment for overtime at a time or times agreed with the Employer.
- (b) Overtime taken as time off during ordinary time hours shall be at the appropriate rate for all other overtime as specified in clause 74.
- (c) An Employer shall, if requested by a School Services Officer, provide payment at the rate provided for the payment of overtime in the Agreement for any overtime worked under clause 74 where such time has not been taken within four weeks of accrual.

74.6 Shift penalties

- (a) Where an Employer requires a School Services Officer to work ordinary time on Monday to Friday, any part of which falls between the hours of 6.00 pm and 7.00 am, a penalty of 15% shall apply for the whole shift, additional to the ordinary rate of pay.
- (b) Where from time to time an Employer requires a School Services Officer to work ordinary time on Monday to Friday falling wholly within the hours of 6.00 pm and 7.00 am (night shift), a penalty of 15% shall apply for the whole shift, additional to the ordinary rate of pay.
- (c) Where, on an ongoing basis, an Employer requires a School Services Officer to work ordinary time on Monday to Friday which falls wholly within the hours of 6.00 pm and 7.00 am (night shift), a penalty of 30% shall apply for the whole shift, additional to the ordinary rate of pay.
- (d) Where a School Services Officer wishes to work outside the spread of hours and this is not required by an Employer, the School Services Officer must request such an arrangement in writing. In the event of such a request and written agreement by the Employer, shift penalty payments shall not apply.
- (e) Where more than five days continuously are worked at the revised hours, the School Services Officer must give two days' notice of reversion to the Employer's required starting and finishing times.

74.7 Broken shifts

- (a) A broken shift means working ordinary hours in separate periods of duty each day. Broken shifts may not be worked in more than two separate periods, with each period being no less than two hours' duration. No broken shifts shall be rostered with a break of less than two hours. Rosters shall be arranged to avoid hours of work extending beyond 12 hours per day.
- (b) School Services Officers working a broken shift shall be paid 15% additional to the ordinary rate of pay for all time worked.

74.8 On call/Recall

- (a) An on call allowance will be paid to an Employee who is required by an Employer to hold themselves available to be recalled to work. For each period that the Employee is required to be on call, the Employee will be paid an allowance equal to:
 - (i) two ordinary hours' pay for each period of up to 24 hours which includes any part of a Saturday or Sunday; and
 - (ii) one ordinary hour's pay for each other period of up to 24 hours;
- (b) A School Services Officer recalled to work shall be paid for a minimum period of four hours.
- (c) A School Services Officer on approved annual leave or school holidays may not be required to work or be on call during that period.

74.9 Breaks

- (a) School Services Officers shall be entitled to an unpaid meal break of at least 30 minutes. This meal break will be taken at a mutually convenient time provided that no more than five continuous hours are worked prior to the meal break.
- (b) School Services Officers shall be entitled to school recesses without deduction of pay where these fall within the hours of the School Services Officer's employment.
- (c) The timing of such recesses can be varied by mutual agreement.
- (d) Where the paid recess is longer than 20 minutes, the School Services Officer may be required to perform duties during the break provided that:
 - (i) the period free from duties is not less than 20 minutes;
 - (ii) the duties are relevant to the Employee's role;
 - (iii) the arrangement does not reduce the Employee's FTE or income.

74.10 Make-up time

School Services Officers may elect, with the consent of their Employer, to work “make-up time”, under which the School Services Officer takes time off during working hours and works those hours at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours provided in this Agreement.

74.11 Preservation of existing arrangements

Averaging of hours arrangements entered into prior to the existence of this part of the Agreement can continue and do not require a new agreement from the Employer. In respect of existing School Services Officers who do not receive a rostered day off in accordance with these arrangements, nothing in this clause shall oblige an Employer to implement a 38 hour week with a rostered day off.

74.12 Notice of hours

- (a) The Employer shall advise School Services Officers of the ordinary starting and finishing times of work and the ordinary time of meal breaks which shall be displayed in a conspicuous place accessible to the School Services Officer. Such times shall not be changed without payment of overtime for work done outside these times, unless seven days’ notice of any change is given by the Employer, provided that such seven days’ notice shall not be required if any change of hours is by mutual agreement between the Employer and the School Services Officer.
- (b) In determining whether changes to hours are necessary and in making such decisions Employers are required to take into account the needs of the school and the family needs and/or responsibilities of the relevant School Services Officer.
- (c) Nothing in this clause prevents an agreement between an Employer and a School Services Officer for the payment of hours additional to the usual hours at the ordinary time rate of pay where the total number of hours in that week is less than 38.

75. Alternative individual arrangements – resident caretakers

- (a) For the purposes of this clause:
 - (i) a non-monetary benefit is the provision of accommodation and the direct or indirect payment by the Employer of utilities arising from the provision of that accommodation;
 - (ii) the monetary benefits contained in clauses 74.4, 74.5, 74.6, 74.7, 74.8 and 74.9.
- (b) The Employer may provide a non-monetary benefit to the School Services Officer in lieu of the monetary benefits and, subject to clause 75(e), the provision of a non-monetary benefit extinguishes any entitlement of the School Services Officer to be paid the monetary benefits.
- (c) The Employer shall nominate in writing to the School Services Officer each non-monetary benefit provided to the School Services Officer in lieu of the monetary benefits.
- (d) The Employer must keep a record of the number of hours worked by the School Services Officer during each pay period including the starting and finishing times of work.
- (e) At the end of each school year, if the monetary benefits calculated, using the records specified in clause 75(d), exceed the non-monetary benefits already paid, the Employer shall pay to the School Services Officer an amount (if any) equal to the difference.
- (f) The money value of the non-monetary benefits is determined by:
 - (i) the value of the accommodation agreed between the Employer and the School Services Officer at the time of engagement and upon review, having regard to the market value of the accommodation and the benefit derived by the particular School Services Officer from its provision;
 - (ii) the cost to the Employer of any utilities paid by the Employer; and
 - (iii) Fringe Benefits Tax.
- (g) If there is a dispute about any matters under this clause (including the money value of the non-monetary benefits), the dispute procedures in this Agreement (clause 22) shall be used to resolve the dispute.

Four school terms of continuous service

- An Employee, other than a Casual Employee, is entitled to leave under this Appendix where the Employee has completed either four school terms or 42 school weeks of continuous service with one or more relevant Employers immediately before the relevant date (see paragraph (2)).
- For the purpose of paragraph (1), the relevant date is the later of:
 - if the leave is birth-related leave and (c) does not apply – the date of birth, or the expected date of birth, of the child;
 - if the leave is adoption-related leave and (c) does not apply – the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child;
 - for either birth-related leave or adoption-related leave, if the Employee is taking a period of parental leave that is to start after the birth or placement of the child – the date on which the Employee's period of leave is to start.

Employees not otherwise entitled to leave

- An Employee:
 - who is employed under this Agreement as a Casual Employee; or
 - who is otherwise not eligible for leave under paragraph (1),
- is eligible for pre-adoption leave and unpaid no safe job leave under this Appendix.

Fixed-term Employees' leave ends with contract

- An Employee who is on a fixed-term contract and who meets the eligibility criteria in this clause 2 is entitled to parental leave under this Appendix. Save that for a fixed-term Employee, that period of leave, including paid parental leave, shall not extend beyond the period for which they have been engaged as a fixed-term Employee. See 4(15) and 4(16) as to an eligible fixed-term Employee's paid parental leave and lump sum payments.

Employees not eligible may take leave without pay

- In the event of the birth or adoption of a child by an Employee who is not entitled to leave (other than pre-adoption leave or unpaid no safe job leave) under this Appendix because the Employee has not completed four school terms or 42 school weeks of continuous service; the Employee is entitled to leave without pay from the day of placement or date of birth of the child (or from such earlier date as agreed with the Employer) until the end of the school year.

Additional rules for adoption-related leave

- An Employee is not entitled to adoption-related leave unless the child that is placed with the Employee for adoption:
 - is under 16 years of age as at the day of placement;
 - has not lived continuously with the Employee for a period of 6 months or more as at the day of placement or proposed day of placement; and
 - is not (otherwise than because of the adoption) a child or step child of the Employee or the Employee's spouse.

Care of a child under a Permanent Care Program

- 7) This Appendix applies to an Employee who undertakes the care of a child through a placement under a Permanent Care Program (through the Department of Human Services). This means that the Employee may be eligible for pre-adoption leave, unpaid parental leave and paid parental leave in relation to the child. The additional rules for adoption-related leave in paragraph (6)(b) and (c) apply to the placement of a child under a Permanent Care Program.

3. Period of leave

Entitlement to 156 weeks of leave

- 1) Subject to paragraph (5), an Employee is entitled to up to 156 weeks of parental leave if the leave is associated with:
- a) the birth of a child of the Employee or the Employee's spouse; or
 - b) the placement of a child with the Employee for adoption,
- and the Employee will have a responsibility for the care of the child.
- 2) Save for any periods of paid leave under clauses 4 and 5, the parental leave is unpaid.
- 3) The maximum of 156 weeks of leave includes the following periods taken by the Employee:
- a) unpaid parental leave;
 - b) paid parental leave (clause 4);
 - c) paid leave taken in conjunction with parental leave (clause 5);
 - d) if applicable, required leave (clause 12);
 - e) paid work with a relevant Employer during the period of parental leave (clause 15);
 - f) keeping in touch days (clause 15).
- 4) An Employee's entitlement to 156 weeks of leave is further reduced by any parental leave (with the exception of concurrent leave) taken by the Employee's spouse in relation to the child.
- 5) The period of 156 weeks of leave may be extended where Employees accessing more than 104 weeks of parental leave are subject to a return to work at the commencement of a school year only (as per paragraph 9), unless otherwise agreed.

- 6) The maximum of 156 weeks of leave does not include the following periods taken by the Employee:
- a) special maternity leave (whether or not this is taken as paid personal leave) taken by the Employee while she is pregnant in accordance with clause 11;
 - b) paid no safe job leave taken in accordance with clause 13.

Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- 7) The Employee must take parental leave in a single continuous period. The exceptions to this rule are concurrent leave, special maternity leave, leave commenced under clause 12, no safe job leave, paid work with a relevant Employer and keeping in touch days.

Timing of leave

- 8) If the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is one school term or more:
- a) the Employee is encouraged to, so far as practicable, commence leave at the end of a school term; and
 - b) the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school term, preferably at the start of a school year. An Employer may by agreement with the Employee arrange for an Employee to return to work at some date earlier than the commencement of a school term.
- 9) If the period of parental leave taken by an employee is 104 weeks or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school year, even if this extends the total period of parental leave beyond 156 weeks, unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

When birth-related leave must start for pregnant Employee

- 10) If the leave is birth-related leave for an Employee who is pregnant with the child, the period of leave may start:
- a) at any time within 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - b) earlier, if the Employer and Employee so agree;
- but must not start later than the date of birth of the child.

When birth-related leave must start for other Employees

- 11) If the leave is birth-related leave but the Employee is not pregnant with the child, the period of leave must start:
- a) on the date of birth of the child; or
 - b) at any time within 156 weeks after the date of birth of the child, if the Employee has a spouse who:
 - i) is on parental leave between the date of birth of the child and the start date of the leave; or
 - ii) is not employed and who has a responsibility for the care of the child for the period between the date of birth of the child and the start date of the leave.

When adoption-related leave must start

- 12) If the leave is adoption-related leave, the period of leave must start:
- a) on the day of placement of the child; or
 - b) at any time within 156 weeks after the day of placement of the child, if the Employee has a spouse who:
 - i) is on parental leave between the day of placement of the child and the start date of the leave; or
 - ii) is not employed and who has a responsibility for the care of the child for the period between the day of placement of the child and the start date of the leave.

Limited entitlement to take concurrent leave

- 13) An Employee may take up to eight weeks of parental leave at the same time that the Employee's spouse also takes parental leave (concurrent leave). The concurrent leave may be taken in separate periods, but, unless the Employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than two weeks.
- 14) Unless the Employer agrees, the concurrent leave must not start before:
- a) if the leave is birth-related leave – the date of birth of the child; or
 - b) if the leave is adoption-related leave – the day of placement of the child.
- 15) Concurrent leave is an exception to the rules about when the Employee's period of parental leave must start and the rule that the Employee must take leave in a single continuous period.

Continuous service

- 16) The period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Employee's continuous service but it does not count as service.

4. Paid parental leave

- 1) Paid parental leave is paid maternity leave, paid adoption leave or paid partner leave.

Eligibility for paid parental leave

- 2) Subject to paragraph (3), an Employee who is eligible for a period of parental leave will be eligible for a period of paid parental leave.
- 3) An Employee who has previously taken a period of paid parental leave (or received a parental leave payment under the Victorian Catholic Education Multi Employer Agreement 2008 or another previous agreement) must have returned to work for one or more relevant Employers for four school terms or 42 school weeks of continuous service in order to be eligible for a subsequent period of paid parental leave.

Paid maternity leave

- 4) If the leave is birth-related leave and the Employee is the female who has given birth to the child, the Employee is entitled to paid maternity leave of 14 weeks.

Paid adoption leave

- 5) If the leave is adoption-related leave and the Employee does not have a spouse who is employed by a relevant Employer, the Employee is entitled to paid adoption leave of 14 weeks.
- 6) If the leave is adoption-related leave and the Employee has a spouse who is employed by a relevant Employer, the Employee and the Employee's spouse are entitled to an aggregate of 14 weeks of paid adoption leave between them. For example, the Employees may each take 7 weeks of paid leave or the first Employee may take 11 weeks of paid adoption leave and the first Employee's spouse may take 3 weeks of paid adoption leave.

Paid partner leave

- 7) If the leave is birth-related leave and the Employee's spouse has given birth to the child, the Employee is entitled to paid partner leave of one week. Paid partner leave may be taken in two separate periods.

Rate of pay

- 8) Paid parental leave is paid at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for the Employee's ordinary hours of work for the pre-parental leave position. The Employee is entitled to superannuation contributions in respect of paid parental leave. The Employee is entitled to be paid what the Employee would have been paid had the Employee been at work during that period, including any pay increases as a result of incremental progression or otherwise.

Half Pay Leave

- 9) Subject to paragraph (11), an Employee who is eligible for paid maternity leave or paid adoption leave may elect to observe that entitlement at the weekly rate of pay for half the Employee's ordinary hours of work in the pre-parental leave position spread over double the period of time (Half Pay Leave). This means that the Employee will receive the same entitlements as an Employee who did not elect to observe Half Pay Leave. For example, an Employee who is eligible for 14 weeks of paid maternity leave and combines that with two weeks of paid school holidays, has a total of 16 weeks of paid leave and may elect to observe that entitlement at full pay for 16 weeks or at half pay for 32 weeks.
- 10) For the purposes of Half Pay Leave:
 - a) the 'initial period of paid maternity leave', means the entitlement to paid maternity leave as defined in paragraph (4); and
 - b) the 'initial period of paid adoption leave', means the entitlement to paid adoption leave, as defined in paragraph (5).
- 11) When an Employee elects to receive Half Pay Leave:
 - a) the Employee will not be entitled to pay increases or increments beyond the initial period of paid maternity leave or the initial period of paid adoption leave. For example, for an Employee who has a total of 16 weeks of paid leave (14 weeks of paid parental leave and two weeks of paid school holidays) and is observing that leave as Half Pay Leave over 32 weeks, the Employee would be entitled to a pay rise that is scheduled in the first 16 weeks but would not be entitled to a pay rise that is scheduled in the second 16 weeks;
 - b) the period of Half Pay Leave observed beyond the initial period of paid maternity leave or the initial period of paid adoption leave shall be inclusive of any public holidays or school holiday periods for which the Employee would otherwise receive school holiday pay. This means the Employee will not receive additional pay for (other than payment for the Half Pay Leave) or have the period of paid leave extended by any public holidays or school holidays that fall within the second half of the period of Half Pay Leave; and

- c) pursuant to clause 25.7(b) of this Agreement, the period of Half Pay Leave will result in a proportional adjustment to school holiday pay and leave loading using the formula under clauses 25.6 and 25.8 of this Agreement.

The period of paid parental leave

- 12) The period of paid parental leave commences when the Employee commences unpaid parental leave in accordance with clauses 3(10) – (12) save that for birth-related leave a period of paid parental leave cannot commence earlier than 20 weeks into the pregnancy.
- 13) The period or periods of paid parental leave cover the first 14 weeks (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or one week (in the case of paid partner leave) of leave taken by the Employee that would otherwise be unpaid (save that Half Pay Leave may be taken over a longer period). Subject to paragraphs (14)–(16) below, an Employee who takes less than 14 weeks' parental leave (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or less than one week's parental leave (in the case of paid partner leave) is entitled to a period of paid parental leave equivalent to the period of parental leave taken by the Employee. For example, if an Employee entitled to paid maternity leave returns to work after a 10 week period of what would otherwise be unpaid parental leave, she will receive 10 weeks of paid parental leave (not the maximum 14 weeks).

Fixed-term Employees

- 14) An Employee who is on a fixed-term contract and who meets the eligibility criteria in this clause 4 is entitled to paid parental leave.
- 15) If a fixed-term Employee is unable to take the maximum 14 weeks' paid parental leave (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or one week's paid parental leave (in the case of paid partner leave) due to the end of their fixed-term contract, the Employer must pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to the balance of the paid parental leave not taken. For example, if a fixed-term Employee entitled to paid maternity leave takes eight weeks' paid parental leave immediately prior to the end of her fixed-term contract, she will be entitled to be paid a lump sum equivalent to the remaining six weeks' paid parental leave not taken.

- 16) If a fixed-term Employee would otherwise be eligible to paid parental leave but the expected date of birth of the child is no more than six weeks after the end of the Employee's fixed-term contract, the Employer must, at the end of the contract, pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to 14 weeks of paid parental leave. For example, if an Employee is on a fixed-term contract that ends on 28 January and the Employee is due to give birth on 6 February, the Employee will be entitled to a 14 week lump sum payment at the end of the contract.

Paid parental leave counts as service

- 17) A period of paid parental leave counts as service.

5. Interaction with paid leave

- 1) Subject to clause 4(11)(b), an Employee taking parental leave may take only one form of paid leave at a time. For example, an Employee cannot take paid parental leave while receiving school holiday pay for the same period. The period of paid parental leave would cease over the school holiday period for which the Employee receives school holiday pay and resume after that period.

Annual leave and long service leave

- 2) An Employee may instead of or in conjunction with parental leave take any annual leave or long service leave (or any part of such leave) to which the Employee is entitled.

Paid school holidays

- 3) Paragraphs (4) and (5) apply to an Employee who is entitled to paid school holidays and who takes a period of parental leave.
- 4) An Employee who has taken 15 or fewer days of unpaid leave (including unpaid parental leave and any other unpaid leave) during the school year is entitled to the full amount of school holiday pay.
- 5) An Employee who has taken more than 15 days of unpaid leave (including unpaid parental leave and any other unpaid leave) during the school year will be entitled to a pro-rata amount of school holiday pay, calculated in accordance with clause 25 of this Agreement.

Public holidays

- 6) An Employee taking parental leave is entitled to payment for public holidays only where the public holiday falls during a period of paid leave (such as paid parental leave, annual leave or long service leave) such that the Employee is taking paid leave on the days either side of the public holiday. If a public holiday falls during a period for which an Employee taking parental leave is receiving school holiday pay, the Employee will not receive separate payment for the public holiday as it is part of the school holiday pay. - 7) An Employee is not entitled to take paid personal/carer's leave or compassionate leave while the Employee is taking parental leave (with the exceptions of personal leave taken during a period of special maternity leave or personal leave taken during a period of long service leave as permitted by the long service leave provisions in this Agreement).

- 4) If the Employee wishes to return to work prior to the intended end date of the parental leave, the Employee must give written notice of her intention to the Employer. - 10) Nothing in this clause 6 prevents the Employer and the Employee from making alternative arrangements regarding the taking of leave or the return to work of the Employee, taking into consideration the Employee's particular circumstances.

7. Cancellation of placement, child dies (adoption-related leave)

- 1) This clause 7 applies to adoption-related leave only.

Cancellation of placement for adoption before leave commences

 - a) the birth occurring earlier than expected;
 - b) the requirement of an adoption agency for the Employee to accept earlier or later placement of the child;
 - c) the death of the mother of the child with respect to birth-related leave;
 - d) the death of the Employee's spouse with respect to adoption-related leave; or

If that is not practicable in the circumstances, the Employee must give written notice as soon as practicable. The notice must specify the intended start date and end date of the concurrent leave.

General

- 8) Whilst an Employee is required to comply with the notice and evidence requirements of this clause 8, the requirement is not a condition of eligibility for parental leave.

9. Pre-natal medical appointments

A female Employee who is pregnant is entitled to use up to five days of any accrued personal leave to attend pre-natal medical appointments.

10. Pre-adoption leave

Entitlement to pre-adoption leave

- 1) The Employer must grant to any Employee who is seeking to adopt a child any unpaid leave not exceeding two days that is required by the Employee to attend any interviews or examinations required to obtain approval for the Employee's adoption of a child. The leave may be taken as a single continuous period of up to two days or any separate periods to which the Employer and Employee agree. If paid leave is available to the Employee, the Employee may elect to take such leave instead of pre-adoption leave.

Notice and evidence

- 2) An Employee must give his or her Employer notice of the taking of unpaid pre-adoption leave by the Employee. The notice must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable and must advise the Employer of the duration of the leave.

- 3) The notice must be accompanied by a medical certificate stating that the leave is taken for one of the reasons specified in paragraph (1).

Personal leave

- 4) An Employee entitled to a period of special maternity leave may elect to take any paid personal leave to which she is entitled during that period (unless the leave is commenced under clause 12). 12. Leave within six weeks of birth

Employer may ask Employee to provide a medical certificate

- 1) If a pregnant Employee who is entitled to parental leave continues to work during the six week period before the expected date of birth of the child, the Employer may ask the Employee to provide a medical certificate containing:
 - a) a statement of whether the Employee is fit for work;
 - b) if the Employee is fit for work – a statement of whether it is inadvisable for the Employee to continue in her present position during a stated period because of:
 - i) illness, or risks, arising out of the Employee's pregnancy; or
 - ii) hazards connected with the position.

Employer may require Employee to take parental leave

- 2) The Employer may require the Employee to take a period of parental leave (required leave) as soon as practicable if:
 - a) the Employee does not give the Employer the requested medical certificate within seven days after the request; or
 - b) the Employee gives the Employer a medical certificate stating that the Employee is not fit for work; or

- 5) The Employee is not required to comply with notice and evidence requirements in relation to the required leave.

13. Transfer to a safe job and no safe job leave*Application of this clause*

- 1) This clause 13 applies to a pregnant Employee if she gives her Employer a medical certificate stating that she is fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for her to continue in her present position during a stated period (risk period) because of:
 - a) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy; or
 - b) hazards connected with that position.
- 2) An appropriate safe job is a safe job that has either the same ordinary hours of work as the Employee's present position or a different number of ordinary hours agreed to by the Employee.

Transfer to appropriate safe job during risk period

- 3) If paragraph (1) applies to an Employee and there is an appropriate safe job available, the Employer must transfer the Employee to that job for the risk period, with no other changes to the Employee's terms and conditions of employment.
- 4) The Employer must pay the Employee for the safe job at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for the position she was in before the transfer. Any overtime performed by the Employee during the risk period will be paid as overtime on the Employee's ordinary rate of pay.

Paid no safe job leave during risk period

- 5) If paragraph (1) applies to an Employee and the Employee is entitled to parental leave but there is no appropriate safe job available, the Employee is entitled to take paid no safe job leave for the risk period.

Special rules about paid no safe job leave

- 8) Paid no safe job leave is an exception to the rules about when the Employee's period of parental leave must start and to the rule that the Employee must take parental leave in a single continuous period.
- 9) The Employee is not required to comply with notice and evidence requirements in relation to paid no safe job leave.

 - b) provide an opportunity for the Employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status, responsibility level, pay or location of the Employee's pre-parental leave position.

Obligations of the Employee

- 2) While on unpaid parental leave, the Employee must:
 - a) take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave, whether the Employee intends to return to work and whether the Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis; and
 - b) notify the Employer of any changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to contact the Employee.

15. Paid work during parental leave

- 1) In this clause 15, the first Employer is the Employer from whom the Employee is taking parental leave.

Work with the first Employer

- 2) If the Employer and the Employee agree, the Employee may be engaged to perform casual or fixed-term work for the first Employer during a period of parental leave, without such work amounting to a return to work from parental leave. The Employee is entitled to be paid the Employee's ordinary rate of pay (minus any and all allowances) for the pre-parental leave position for any such work. Such work counts as service for the purpose of leave accruals.
- 3) The Employee must not perform work for the first Employer during any period for which the Employee receives payment from the first Employer (for example, paid parental leave, long service leave, annual leave).
- 4) This clause is an exception to the rule that the Employee must take leave in a single continuous period. Work with the first Employer does not extend the period of parental leave beyond the end date of the leave or the maximum period of 156 weeks, subject to clause 3(5).

Work with another relevant Employer

- 5) If, during a period of parental leave, an Employee engages in paid work for one or more relevant Employers (second or subsequent Employer) other than the first Employer, the Employee must inform the first Employer prior to commencement of the position. This requirement does not apply to work performed for a second or subsequent Employer on a casual basis (including Emergency Teaching and Casual Relieving work).

- 6) If, while employed by the second or subsequent Employer, the Employee becomes entitled to a subsequent period of parental leave:
 - a) the Employee shall comply with the notice and evidence requirements under clause 8 in relation to the first Employer and the second or subsequent Employer;

 - c) if the Employee is eligible for paid parental leave, such leave is to be paid by the second or subsequent Employer whilst the Employee is employed by the second or subsequent Employer up to and including the end date of the contract. The balance of any paid parental leave is to be paid by the first Employer.

- 7) If an Employee becomes entitled to paid parental leave in circumstances other than those in paragraph (6), the first Employer must provide the paid parental leave.

- 9) An Employee may perform paid work for the first Employer on a keeping in touch day during a period of parental leave. Such a day is a keeping in touch day if:
 - a) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the Employee to keep in touch with his or her employment in order to facilitate a return to work after the end of the period of parental leave; and
 - b) both the Employee and the Employer consent to the Employee performing paid work for the Employer on that day; and
 - c) the day is not within:
 - i) if the work is at the request of the Employee – 14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child; or
 - ii) otherwise – 42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child; and
 - d) the Employee has not already performed work for the first Employer on 10 days during the period of leave that were keeping in touch days.

- 10) An Employee is entitled to be paid the Employee's ordinary rate of pay plus an 18% loading for work performed on a keeping in touch day. Such work does not count as service for the purpose of leave accruals.
- 11) An Employee must not perform paid work on a keeping in touch day during any period for which the Employee receives payment from the first Employer (for example, paid parental leave, long service leave, annual leave).
- 12) Work performed on a keeping in touch day does not break the continuity of the period of parental leave and does not extend the period of parental leave beyond the end date of the leave or the maximum period of 156 weeks, subject to clause 3(5).

16. Employee ceases care of child

- 1) If an Employee on parental leave ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child (other than in the circumstances of clauses 6 or 7), the Employer may elect to give the Employee written notice requiring the Employee to return to work no earlier than eight weeks after the date of the notice.
- 2) Nothing in this clause 16 prevents the Employer and the Employee from making alternative arrangements regarding the taking of leave or the return to work of the Employee, taking into consideration the Employee's particular circumstances.

17. Replacement Employees

- 1) Before an Employer engages an Employee to perform the work of another Employee who is taking parental leave, the Employer must notify the replacement Employee:
 - a) that the engagement to perform that work is temporary;
 - b) of the rights the Employer and the Employee taking parental leave have to cancel the leave if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth; and
 - c) of the rights the Employee taking parental leave has to end the leave early if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth; and

- d) of the right of the Employee taking parental leave to return to the Employee's pre-parental leave position at the end of the leave; and
- e) of the right of the Employer to require the Employee taking parental leave to return to work if the Employee ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child.

- 2) Before an Employer temporarily promotes or transfers an Employee to replace an Employee taking parental leave, the Employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and the rights of the Employee who is being replaced.
- 3) Nothing in this clause 17 requires an Employer to engage a replacement Employee.

18. Subsequent pregnancy or adoption during leave

- 1) If an Employee is on parental leave and either:
 - a) the Employee or the Employee's spouse gives birth to another child; or
 - b) another child is placed with the Employee for adoption, and the Employee has responsibility for the care of the child, the Employee will be entitled to a subsequent period of parental leave.
- 2) The subsequent period of parental leave is a separate period of leave of up to 156 weeks. The subsequent period of parental leave commences on the date of birth or day of placement of the child.
- 3) The Employee shall comply with the notice and evidence requirements under clause 8 in relation to the subsequent period of parental leave. The Employee is not required to return to work to be eligible for the subsequent period of parental leave, but will only be eligible for paid parental leave if they satisfy the requirements in clauses 4(2) and (3).
- 4) Clause 15(6) provides additional details for when an Employee becomes entitled to a subsequent period of parental leave while they are employed by a second or subsequent Employer.

D) Returning to Work

19. Timing of return to work

- 1) As per clause 3(8)(b), if the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is one school term or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school term, preferably at the start of a school year. An Employer may by agreement with the Employee arrange for an Employee to return to work at some date earlier than the commencement of a school term.
- 2) As per clause 3(9), if the period of parental leave taken by an employee is 104 weeks or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school year, even if this extends the total period of parental leave beyond 156 weeks unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

20. Changing the end date of leave

First extension by giving notice to Employer

- 1) An Employee on parental leave may extend the period of parental leave once by giving the Employer written notice of the extension at least four weeks before the end date of the original leave period. The notice must specify the new end date for the leave. The total period of parental leave including the extension (and including any parental leave taken by the Employee's spouse save for concurrent leave) must be no more than 156 weeks (unless clause 3(5) applies and the leave is extended to allow a return to work at the start of a school year).

Further extensions by agreement with Employer

- 2) If the Employer agrees, the Employee may further extend the period of parental leave one or more times.

Reducing the period of parental leave by agreement with Employer

- 3) If the Employer agrees, an Employee may reduce the period of parental leave and return to work prior to the original end date of the leave.

21. Return to work guarantee

- 1) On ending parental leave (including any special maternity leave), an Employee is entitled to return to:
 - a) the Employee's pre-parental leave position; or
 - b) if that position no longer exists, a position commensurate with his or her qualifications and experience.

- 2) An Employee with an ongoing part-time position is entitled to return to an ongoing part-time position of the same number of hours per week but not necessarily the times or class levels.

22. Notice of return to work

- 1) This clause 22 applies to Employees taking parental leave for a period of one school term or more. For Employees taking parental leave for less than one school term, notice of return to work is taken to be covered by the confirmation of the end date of parental leave under clause 8(6).
- 2) An Employee must confirm their intention to return to work in writing as soon as practicable but not less than one school term prior to the Employee's intended return to work date.
- 3) If an Employer does not receive such notice from the Employee by the date in paragraph (2), the Employer may send written notice to the Employee requesting confirmation of the Employee's intentions.

23. Return to work arrangements

- 1) Where an Employee returns to work from parental leave, and requests arrangements for facilitating and accommodating breast feeding, the Employer will make reasonable arrangements.

24. Return to work part-time

- 1) Subject to this clause 24, an Employee returning to work from parental leave may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from their return to work until the child reaches school age.

Request for part-time work

- 2) An Employee who is returning to work from a period of parental leave is eligible to make a request to the Employer for part-time work if the Employee has a child under school age.
- 3) The request for part-time work must:
 - a) be in writing;
 - b) be made as soon as practicable but not less than eight weeks, wholly within a school term, prior to the Employee's intended return to work date (where practicable, Employees are encouraged to give one term's notice of the request for part-time work);
 - c) set out details of the nature of part-time work sought;
 - d) specify the start and end dates of the period of part-time work sought.

Response to the request

- 4) The Employer must give the Employee a written response to the request for part-time work within 21 days of the request, stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request.
- 5) The Employer must consider the request to work part-time having regard to the Employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the Employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse to permit the Employee part-time work on reasonable grounds related to the effect of the change on the workplace or the Employer's business. If the Employer refuses the request for part-time work, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal.
- 6) Without limiting what are reasonable grounds related to the effect of the change on the workplace or the Employer's business in paragraph (5), such grounds include the following:
 - a) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be too costly for the Employer;
 - b) that there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other Employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - c) that it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other Employees, or recruit new Employees, to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - d) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;
 - e) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to have a significant negative impact on customer service.
- 7) The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the Employee in his or her former position but must be work commensurate with the Employee's qualifications and experience.

Part-time work agreement

- 8) Before commencing part-time work under this Appendix, the Employer and Employee must enter into a part-time work agreement that contains the following information:
 - a) that the part-time work agreement constitutes a temporary variation of the Employee's ongoing position;
 - b) details of the part-time work (including hours to be worked, days of work and commencing times for work for the specific period of the part-time work agreement);
 - c) the start and end dates of the period of part-time work; and
 - d) that the part-time work agreement may be varied by consent.
- 9) The terms of the part-time work agreement and any variation to it shall be in writing and retained by the Employer. A copy of the part-time work agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the Employee by the Employer.

Subsequent periods of part-time work

- 10) If an Employee continues to be eligible under paragraph (2), the Employee may request a subsequent period or periods of part-time work. This clause 24 applies to any such subsequent requests as though they were an initial request for part-time work.

End of part-time work

- 11) In this clause 24, the former position means the permanent position held by an Employee prior to a period or periods of part-time work. If the Employee enters into a part-time work agreement upon their return to work from parental leave, the former position will be the permanent pre-parental leave position.
- 12) At the expiration of the part-time work agreement, if the Employer and Employee have not entered into a subsequent part-time work agreement, the Employee is entitled to return to:
 - a) the Employee's former position; or
 - b) if that position no longer exists – a commensurate position for which the Employee is qualified and suited nearest in status and pay to the former position.

- (a) An Employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 1.1 of this Appendix may terminate employment during the period of notice and, if so, shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had the Employee remained with the Employer until the expiry of such notice. Provided that in such circumstances the Employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

1.6 Alternative employment

- (a) An Employer in a particular redundancy case may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the Employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an Employee. The parties agree that the Commission has the power to vary the severance pay prescriptions and issue orders in such circumstances.
- (b) Where the Employee obtains employment in another Catholic school or institution in Victoria and there is no loss of benefits (i.e. salary, Long Service Leave, sick leave, annual leave, superannuation, etc.), then the Employee shall not be entitled to severance pay.

1.7 Time off during notice period

- (a) During the period of notice of termination given by the Employer, an Employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the Employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Employee shall, at the request of the Employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

1.8 Transmission of business

- (a) Where a business is transmitted from an Employer (in the sub-clause called “the transmitter”) to another Employer (in this sub-clause called “the transmittee”) and an Employee who at the time of such transmission was an Employee of the transmitter in that business becomes an Employee of the transmittee:
 - (i) the continuity of the employment of the Employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
 - (ii) the period of employment which the Employee has had with the transmitter or any prior transmitter shall be deemed to be service of the Employee with the transmittee.
- (b) In this sub-clause “business” includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes part of any such business. “Transmission” includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and “transmitted” has a corresponding meaning.

1.9 Employee with less than one year's continuous service

- (a) This Appendix shall not apply to Employees with less than one year's continuous service, as defined in clause 6.

1.10 Employees exempted

- (a) This Appendix shall not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that justifies instant dismissal, or in the case of Casual Employees or Emergency Teachers, or Employees engaged for specific periods of time or for a specified task or tasks.

1.11 Incapacity to pay

- (a) An Employer, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied on the basis of the Employer's incapacity to pay. The parties agree that the Commission has the power to vary the severance pay prescriptions and issue orders in such circumstances.

2. Redundancy Guidelines

2.1 Preamble

- (a) The procedures have been designed to ensure a consistent and fair approach to be applied to all in Catholic education. The full cooperation of all parties is essential therefore for all engaged in the providing of advice to schools to work together to help the situation reach a satisfactory conclusion.

2.2 Definitions

- (a) For the purpose of these procedures, a potential redundancy situation applies where any member of staff could be disadvantaged in his or her current employment contract as a result of changes in funding, curriculum, enrolment decline, or as a result of policy/administration changes.

2.3 Objectives

- (a) The objectives of these procedures, in order, are to:
 - (i) avoid redundancies in Catholic schools in Victoria;
 - (ii) delay redundancies where this is not possible; and
 - (iii) facilitate those declared redundant to find other suitable employment within Catholic education so that they do not suffer financially as a result of being declared redundant.
- (b) The procedures must be applied as early as possible. This also allows the appropriate consultation to occur and the provision of notice where applicable.

2.4 Timelines

- (a) The timelines are a guide only. They are based on the assumption that a redundancy will take effect from the beginning of a school year and that the information upon which a potential redundancy is identified is available early in the year previous to the redundancy. Where a situation arises in other circumstances (e.g. as a result of student elective choices late in a school year, or unanticipated enrolment decline in the February census) the timelines contained in this document may not apply and the school will notify the parties as soon as the potential redundancy situation is identified so that Step 1 can commence.

2.5 Re-Employment assistance – Role of the Diocesan Catholic Education Offices

- (a) In order to achieve the aims outlined in clause 2.3, Employers will request Diocesan Catholic Education Offices to assist staff to find ongoing employment where:
 - (i) schools have declared individual staff members redundant; or
 - (ii) the school has announced its closure; or
 - (iii) the school has announced that it is amalgamating with another school(s).
- (b) Employers will also request Diocesan Catholic Education Offices to consult with the parties on a regular basis regarding:
 - (i) the number of redundancies still remaining; and
 - (ii) the ways that have been employed to assist staff find ongoing employment.

2.6 Re-Employment assistance – Interviews

- (a) Where an application is made for a vacant position in a Catholic school in Victoria, and:
 - (i) the applicant has the qualifications and experience to fill the vacancy; and
 - (ii) the applicant identified that he or she has been declared redundant from another Victoria Catholic school;
- (b) Then the school should interview the applicant for the position.

3. Step 1 – Redundancy Identification

3.1 Procedures

- (a) In each year as soon as a potential redundancy situation is identified at the school level, the Employer/Principal shall communicate this fact to the staff, in writing, with an outline of the reasons for the potential redundancy.
- (b) A copy of this notification shall be forwarded at the same time to the Union and the relevant Diocesan Director.
- (c) A copy of these procedures is also to be given to each staff member.

3.2 Timeline

- (a) This step is to take place by the end of the third week of the third term where the redundancy would be effective at the end of the year.
- (b) The timeline is an indication of the latest date at which it is expected that the staff are informed of the potential redundancy. It is to be noted that the staff are to be informed as soon as the school identified the potential redundancy in that year.
- (c) As soon as a potential redundancy situation is resolved at the school level, the Employer/Principal shall communicate this fact to the parties.
- (d) After the staff have been notified in writing the school should commence procedures to resolve the potential redundancy.

3.3 Alternatives available

- (a) In investigating the alternatives available, a written record shall be held of the information obtained and the efforts made to ascertain any way of resolving the problem.
- (b) Included in the alternatives that the Employer/Principal should investigate are the following:
 - (i) what efforts can be made to re-deploy existing staff within the school;
 - (ii) staffing requirements in all other schools under the authority of the present Employer;
 - (iii) The possibility of employment of staff in neighbouring schools;
 - (iv) Any additional funding that may be available e.g. additional Government funding, parish support;
 - (v) Retraining possibilities;
 - (vi) Possible leave arrangements e.g. Leave Without Pay, Long Service Leave, Parental Leave.
- (c) Included in the alternatives are applications by staff indicating that they are willing to make a voluntary offer to be declared redundant.
- (d) When staff are asked what their intentions are for the period concerned (e.g. the following year), it should be noted that it is unacceptable for staff to be pressured into applying for positions elsewhere because it may be seen that the school has pre-empted the necessary consultative and deliberative processes in later steps.

4. Step 2 – Redundancy Document

4.1 Procedures

- (a) If the potential redundancy is not solved, the Principal will send either:
 - (i) a redundancy document to all the parties identified in the application of clause 3 of this Appendix; or
 - (ii) a notification that a voluntary redundancy and/or an offer of leave without pay has been accepted.

4.2 Timeline

- (a) The Employer's/Principal's document is to be sent to the parties at the beginning of the third week of third term, but must be received by the parties at least three working days before the date of the Step 3 meeting.

4.3 Guidelines

- (a) The development and distribution of the school's redundancy document is the responsibility of the Employer/Principal. The document will include the following information:
 - (i) The reasons for the potential redundancy
The Employer/Principal should outline the reasons why the problem exists. Information such as funding, staffing and enrolments (past, present and projected) are factors which are important. Issues such as funding, staffing and curriculum change should also be mentioned where relevant.
 - (ii) The number and categories of staff likely to be affected
The teaching and/or non-teaching areas where the redundancy is likely to take place and the numbers of staff are identified.
 - (iii) The number of staff employed and details of their employment
This area to be kept confidential.
 - (iv) Alternatives investigated
 - The possibilities of redeploying staff within the school;
 - Information regarding staffing requirements (e.g. vacancies) in all schools under the authority of the Employer;
 - Information about vacancies in neighbouring schools;
 - Information about any extra funding available including attempts made to seek such funds;
 - The possibility of re-training;
 - Possible leave arrangements;
 - Indications by staff that they are willing to make a voluntary offer to be declared redundant.

(v) Special funding to tide over a redundancy gap

Where it is known that only a small gap of over-employment may occur, it is desirable to consider whether funding can be arranged to tide over this gap. The school should outline to the parties the efforts it has made to address this possibility (documents in this section remain confidential).

5. Step 3 – Redundancy Meeting

5.1 Procedures

- (a) A meeting will be held between the parties to consider the Employer's/Principal's redundancy proposal.
- (b) The parties will seek to agree on the criteria to be applied.
- (c) Given agreement on both the criteria to be applied and the redundancy proposal, the Employer/Principal shall indicate to the parties at the meeting the name(s) of the person(s) to be declared redundant. The person(s) so named shall be informed within a week of the meeting by the Employer/Principal.
- (d) In the event of the disagreement by any party with any of these stages, that party shall indicate to the meeting why there is disagreement. Failing resolution, clause 5.1(e) will apply.
- (e) A second meeting will be held to attempt to resolve the disagreement arising in clause 5.1(d).
- (f) If agreement cannot be reached as a result of the meeting in clause 5.1(e), the Employer/Principal shall inform the parties at the meeting of the action that the Employer/Principal intends to take.

5.2 Timeline

- (a) The actual time and place will be decided by mutual agreement between the parties and the Employer/Principal, but the meeting is to take place between the Monday of the second last week of third term and the Friday of the first week of fourth term, the school holiday time to be included.
- (b) The meeting outlined in clause 5.1(e) will take place within one week of the meeting in clause 5.1(a).

5.3 Guidelines

- (a) The following outlines possible criteria which the parties will take into consideration and criteria which may not be put forward.

(b) Deciding who is to be declared redundant:

(i) Criteria

- Identify the needs of the school;
- Identify the work currently being performed which will no longer need to be performed due to redundancy;
- Identify those staff who, if declared redundant, could not be replaced by any member of the existing staff having regard to the programs planned for the period after the redundancy (i.e. new staff would have to be employed if that person(s) was declared redundant).

(ii) Factors

The Employer/Principal will nominate the factors (from those below) which have been considered in determining the staff member(s) to be declared redundant, from those staff members not included in the above clause. The Employer/Principal will advise those attending the meeting of the factors and any priority that has been applied to these factors:

- Current contract of employment;
- Current duties;
- Curriculum programs;
- Experience;
- Funding base for staff member;
- Graduate status;
- Length of service;
- Pastoral considerations;
- Previous redundancy history;
- Qualifications;
- Specialist expertise;
- Staff member(s) willingness to make a voluntary offer to be declared redundant.

(iii) Factors which cannot be used

- Person is a Union Representative/Union affiliation;
- Person's sex, marital status, age, pregnancy;
- Person's lifestyle;
- Person's competence or otherwise, or suitability or otherwise;
- Person's religion.

6. Step 4 – Notifying the Redundancy result6.1 Procedures

- (a) The parties attending the meeting in clause 5 are notified in writing of the details of the Employer's action following clause 5.

6.2 Timeline

- (a) The notification must be forwarded to the parties within two weeks of the meeting in clause 5.

7. Step 5 – Assistance in re-deployment7.1 Procedures

- (a) The Principal will promptly coordinate re-employment assistance with the relevant Catholic Education Office as set out above.
- (b) During the period of notice the Principal should:
- (i) with the agreement of the staff member(s) declared redundant, contact neighbouring Catholic schools and Catholic Education Offices to facilitate employment of the staff member;
 - (ii) where agreed, meet regularly with the staff member(s) declared redundant to discuss pastoral and professional issues;
 - (iii) provide time release to the staff member(s) declared redundant to attend interviews.
- (c) Prior to the redundancy payment being forwarded to the Employee(s), the Employee(s) should be offered Leave Without Pay for the following school year, thereby deferring the date of termination of the Employee(s) declared redundant.
- (d) If the Employee(s) accepts the offer of Leave Without Pay, the Principal shall notify the parties.
- (e) Should a position become available in the school during the period of Leave Without Pay, for which the Employee has appropriate skills and qualifications, the Employee should be advised that the position exists. If the Employee wishes to remain on the period of Leave Without Pay, the position will be held open until the expiration of the period of Leave Without Pay.

- (f) Where an Employee(s) has accepted an offer of a period of Leave Without Pay to defer the date of termination, and there has been no change in the potential redundancy situation, then clause 7.1(g) will apply.
- (g) In the last week of the third term of the following school year, the Principal shall notify the parties that they intend to proceed with the notice of termination if the meeting in clause 5 is not re-convened, then at the expiration of the period of Leave Without Pay, if the Employee has not obtained alternative employment in Catholic Education, the Employee shall receive the appropriate redundancy payment.

7.2 Timelines

- (a) The offer of Leave Without Pay to Employees declared redundant should be made as early as possible during the period of notice.
- (b) The letter notifying the parties of an acceptance of an offer of Leave Without Pay should be sent immediately.
- (c) The letter notifying the parties of an intention to proceed with the notice of termination on the expiration of a period of Leave Without Pay should be sent in the last week of the third term of the school year in which the Leave Without Pay is taken.

8. Step 6 – Variations to Step 4 notification and redundancy payments advice

8.1 Procedures, Timeline and Guidelines

- (a) The parties attending clause 5.1(a) and/or clause 5.1(e) are notified in writing of:
 - (i) variations to Step 3 meeting resolution – any variation(s) to the resolution to the redundancy which occur after the Step 4 notification should be sent to the parties immediately.
 - (ii) Final redundancy payments – where no resolution to the redundancy situation can be found, then the Principal should notify the parties as to the amount and date of redundancy payment made to any person(s) made redundant.
- (b) Payments to staff declared redundant should be 15 working days after the termination of employment as a result of the redundancy declaration taking effect.

APPENDIX 3

LONG SERVICE LEAVE

1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Appendix:

“Act” means Long Service Leave Act 2018 (Vic) as amended from time to time.

“Employee” has the same meaning as in the definition section of this Agreement, but for the purposes of this Appendix does not include a member of a religious order.

“Employer” means an Employer respondent to this Agreement or a former Employer of the Employee who at the time of the Employee’s employment is or was a participant in the Scheme including the Employers in the schedules of the Rules of the Scheme.

“Invalidity” means the incapacity or disablement of an Employee due to an illness or injury (which has been confirmed to the Employer by a health practitioner), and as a result of which:

- (a) the Employee has been continuously absent from active employment for six months (or lesser period approved by the Employer);
- (b) the Employee is, in the opinion of the Employer, incapacitated to such an extent as to render the Employee unlikely to ever engage in any gainful employment for which the person is reasonably qualified by education, training or experience; and
- (c) the Employer reserves the right to refer the Employee to an independent health practitioner, as appointed by the Employer from time to time, for an opinion as to the nature and extent of the incapacity of the Employee; provided that no person will be considered to have suffered a permanent invalidity, unless confirmed as above, and a claim was made within two years of the person ceasing active employment.

“Full-Time Equivalent” or “FTE” means service recorded as a decimal fraction of a full-time load.

“Ordinary Rate of Pay” has the same meaning as in the definition section of this Agreement.

“Service in Catholic education” means service by an Employee with one or more Employers, not including casual employment and emergency employment.

“The Scheme” means the Catholic Education Long Service Leave Scheme (Victoria).

2. Entitlements

2.1 An Employee shall be entitled to 9.1 weeks’ long service leave on completion of seven years of continuous service in Catholic education and to further long service leave of 1.30 weeks for each additional and subsequent year of continuous service in Catholic education after 28 January 1996 (or 1.20 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996).

2.2 Clause 2.1 applies for calculating entitlements from 29 October 2008.

2.3 The historical rates of accruals applicable prior to 29 October 2008 are summarised in the table below:

Historical periods	Long service leave entitlements
Prior to 24 January 2005	13 weeks of long service leave on completion of 10 years of continuous service in Catholic education and further long service leave of 1.3 weeks for each additional and subsequent year of continuous service in Catholic education from 29 January 1996 (or 1.2 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996).
24 January 2005 to 28 October 2008	10.4 weeks of long service leave on completion of 8 years of continuous service in Catholic education and further long service leave of 1.3 weeks for each additional and subsequent year of continuous service in Catholic education from 29 January 1996 (or 1.2 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996).

2.4 In calculating an Employee’s years of continuous service in Catholic education for the purpose of clause 2.1 or clause 4 hereof:

2.4.1 all service in Catholic education before the beginning of the 1965 school year shall be reduced by one half; and

2.4.2 all service in Catholic education on or after the beginning of the 1965 school year, and before the beginning of the 1978 school year, shall be reduced by one third.

2.5 The provisions of clause 2.4 shall not operate so as to reduce or diminish an Employee’s rights in respect of long service leave pursuant to any other pre-existing agreement applying to the Employee.

- 2.6 Any period of long service leave shall be exclusive of any public holiday occurring during the period when the leave is taken and any annual leave or school holidays.
- 2.7 The entitlement to long service leave of any casual Employee will be governed by the Act and not by this Agreement.

3. Calculation of leave entitlements

- 3.1 Long service leave is paid at the Ordinary Rate of Pay at the time of the taking of the leave or on termination.
- 3.2 Subject to clause 3.3, the calculation and payment of long service leave entitlements in respect of Employees who have worked part-time during an eligible accrual period shall be as follows:
- 3.2.1 If the whole period of service was part-time service, at the full-time Ordinary Rate of Pay at the time of the taking of the leave, multiplied by the greater of either the average Full-Time Equivalent over the aggregate period of part-time service or the average Full-Time Equivalent over the most recent aggregate period of 12 months of part-time service;
- 3.2.2 If the period of service includes both part-time and full-time, at the full-time Ordinary Rate of Pay as at the date of taking leave multiplied by the sum of:
- (a) the proportion of the leave as equates to the proportion of the period of service which was full-time service; and
 - (b) the proportion of the leave as equates to the proportion of the period of service which was part-time service multiplied by the greater of either the average Full-Time Equivalent over the period of part-time service, or the average Full-Time Equivalent over the most recent aggregate period of 12 months of part-time service.
- 3.3 If the calculation in clause 3.2 results in an Employee's leave entitlement being lower than that provided under the Act, the entitlement to long service leave for that Employee will be calculated as provided for under the Act.

4. Entitlement in lieu of leave on termination

- 4.1 An Employee who has completed at least seven years' continuous service in Catholic education and whose employment is terminated shall be entitled to long service leave as equals 9.1 weeks plus 1.30 weeks for each year of service from and after 29 January 1996 (or 1.2 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996) for the period of his/her continuous service in Catholic education which exceeds seven years, less any long service leave previously taken, and shall be entitled upon termination to receive payment for the full amount of unused long service leave, calculated pursuant to clauses 2 and 3 hereof, as at the date of termination.
- 4.2 Clause 4.1 applies in respect of any Employee whose service in Catholic education terminated on or after 1 January 2006.
- 4.3 The rates of accruals for entitlements in lieu of termination applicable to historic periods prior to 1 January 2006 are summarised in the table below:

Date of termination	Entitlements on termination in lieu of long service leave
Prior to 30 January 2001	An Employee who has completed at least 10 years' continuous service in Catholic education was entitled to 13 weeks of long service leave plus, in respect of any period of continuous service in Catholic education which exceeds 10 years, 1.3 weeks for each year of service from and after 29 January 1996 (or 1.2 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996).
30 January 2001 to 31 December 2005	An Employee who has completed at least 8 years' continuous service in Catholic education was entitled to 10.4 weeks of long service leave plus, in respect of any period of continuous service in Catholic education which exceeds 8 years, 1.3 weeks for each year of service from and after 29 January 1996 (or 1.2 weeks for each year of service until 28 January 1996).

- 4.4 Upon termination of employment after the applicable period of continuous service in Catholic education referred to in clauses 4.1 or 4.3, an Employer must pay to an Employee a payment in lieu of long service leave of an amount equivalent to the remuneration the Employee would have received had the full amount of unused long service leave been taken as leave at the date of termination, unless the Employee elects to forgo the entitlement in favour of recognition of the long service leave entitlement and the service to which it relates under new employment with an Employer pursuant to clause 7.
- 4.5 An Employee who has completed less than the applicable period of continuous service in Catholic education referred to in clauses 4.1 or 4.3, and whose employment is terminated on account of Invalidity is entitled to be paid on termination long service leave equivalent to their accrual.
- 4.6 For an Employee who dies whilst in employment having completed less than the applicable period of continuous service in Catholic education referred to in clauses 4.1 or 4.3, the Employer must make a pro-rata payment of an amount in respect of the long service leave accrued to the date of death, to the Employee's estate.

5. Entitlements on resumption of service

Resumption of service after October 2008

Where, after termination of his/her employment, an Employee subsequently resumes Service in Catholic education after October 2008, then:

- 5.1 if the Employee resumes Service in Catholic education within a period not exceeding eight (8) full school terms after the effective date of termination, the service shall be deemed continuous but the period between periods of service shall not be accruable and any further entitlement to long service leave shall be determined from the date of commencement of such continuous service in Catholic education, less any leave entitlements previously taken; or
- 5.2 if the Employee resumes Service in Catholic education within a period exceeding eight (8) full school terms after the effective date of termination the service shall not be deemed continuous nor accruable, and any further entitlement to long service leave shall be determined from the date of such resumption of service in Catholic education in accordance with clause 2.

Explanatory note: For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to eight full school terms above includes any school holidays or public holidays up to the first day of the school term immediately following. Refer to note under clause 6.3.3 for examples.

Resumption of service before October 2008 but on or after the beginning of the 1978 school year

- 5.3 Where an Employee was paid all long service leave entitlements under the provisions of clause 4 upon termination of his/her employment, and subsequently resumed Service in Catholic education before October 2008 but on or after the beginning of the 1978 school year, the service shall not be deemed continuous nor accruable, and any further entitlement to long service leave will be determined from the date of such resumption of service.
- 5.4 Where an Employee was not paid all long service leave entitlements under the provisions of clause 4 upon termination of his/her employment, and subsequently resumed Service in Catholic education before October 2008 but on or after the beginning of the 1978 school year then:
 - 5.4.1 if the Employee resumes Service in Catholic education within a period not exceeding one (1) year after the effective date of termination, the service shall be deemed continuous but the period between periods of service shall not be accruable, and any further entitlement to long service leave will be determined from the date of commencement of such continuous service less leave entitlements previously taken; or
 - 5.4.2 if the Employee resumes Service in Catholic education within a period exceeding one (1) year after the effective date of termination, the service shall not be deemed continuous nor accruable, and any further entitlement to long service leave will be determined from the date of such resumption of service.

Resumption of service before the beginning of the 1978 school year

- 5.5 Where upon the termination of his/her employment, an Employee subsequently resumed Service in Catholic education before the beginning of the 1978 school year, then the service shall be deemed continuous but the period between periods of service not accruable, and any further entitlement to long service leave will be determined from the date of commencement of such continuous service, less leave entitlements previously taken.

6. Continuous and accruable service

- 6.1 The defining terms of continuous service expressed in this Appendix apply only to long service leave.
- 6.2 Service in Catholic education shall be continuous and accruable for the purpose of calculating long service leave entitlements notwithstanding:
 - 6.2.1 The taking of any paid leave by an Employee which was granted by an Employer including but not limited to annual leave, long service leave and personal leave;
 - 6.2.2 Any absence for which the Employee is entitled to receive weekly payments pursuant to the WIRC Act, Workers Compensation Act 1958, the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or the Transport Accident Act 1986;
 - 6.2.3 Any unpaid absence from work on account of illness or injury of up to one year inclusive of any annual leave or school holidays prior to the date of commencement of the Act;
 - 6.2.4 Any unpaid absence from work on account of illness or injury after the date of commencement of the Act;
 - 6.2.5 Any other unpaid absence from work (including unpaid parental leave) of up to one year taken with the Employer's consent after the date of commencement of the Act;
 - 6.2.6 Any other unpaid absence from work in excess of one year taken with the Employer's consent where the Employer and the Employee agreed in writing before the leave was taken that such period of leave will be accruable for the purposes of calculating long service leave entitlements.
- 6.3 Service in Catholic education shall be continuous but not accruable for the purpose of calculating long service leave entitlements for the period of:
 - 6.3.1 Any interruption to service arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute;
 - 6.3.2 An Employee being stood down through no fault of their own as the Employer cannot continue the employment because the Employee cannot be gainfully employed;
 - 6.3.3 Termination of an Employee's employment with an Employer, if the Employee is re-employed within Catholic education by an Employer, within a period not exceeding eight (8) full school terms after the effective date of such termination;

Explanatory note: For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to eight full school terms in this clause includes any school holidays or public holidays up to the first day of the school term immediately following. For example, if an Employee's employment terminates at the end of the 2018 school year and the Employee commences employment with an Employer at the beginning of term 1 in school year 2021, the break in service will be no more than eight full School Terms. Alternatively, if an Employee's employment terminates at any time before the end of term 4 in school year 2018 and the Employee subsequently commences new employment with an Employer at the beginning of term 1 in school year 2021, the break in service will exceed eight full school terms.

- 6.3.4 Any unpaid absence from work by reason of parental leave not exceeding:
 - (a) 18 months prior to 1 February 1980;
 - (b) 12 months between 1 February 1980 and 31 January 1985 inclusive;
 - (c) 104 weeks between 1 February 1985 and 18 October 2004 inclusive;
 - (d) 156 weeks between 19 October 2004 and the date of commencement of the Act; or such longer period as may be permitted by this Agreement.
- 6.3.5 Any unpaid absence from work by reason of parental leave in excess of one year, from the date of commencement of the Act;
- 6.3.6 Any other unpaid absence from work in excess of one year taken with the Employer's consent unless clauses 6.2.4 or 6.2.6 apply.

7. Portability and process on termination

- 7.1 An Employee may make a request to an Employer with whom his/her employment is being terminated to forgo the payment of a long service leave entitlement in favour of a recognition of the long service leave entitlement and the service to which it relates in respect of new employment with an Employer, provided that:
 - 7.1.1 the Employee declares, at the time of the termination of employment, the details of the new employment or that the Employee is seeking employment within Catholic education; and
 - 7.1.2 the period between the date of termination of employment and the commencement of new employment with an Employer is not more than four full school terms.

7.2 Where the Employee makes a request under clause 7.1 and commences employment with an Employer within a period of not more than four full school terms from the date of effect of the termination of the previous employment with an Employer, his/her long service leave entitlement will be recognised and the service to which it relates will be treated as continuous service in respect of the new employment with an Employer.

7.3 Where the Employee makes a request under clause 7.1 and does not commence employment with an Employer within a period of four full school terms from the date of effect of the termination, the Employee will be paid their accrued long service leave entitlement with effect from the date of termination.

Explanatory note: For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to four full school terms in this clause includes any school holidays or public holidays up to the first day of the school term immediately following. For example, if an Employee's employment terminates at the end of a school year and the Employee commences employment with an Employer at the beginning of term 1 following a break of one school year, the break in service will have been no more than four full school terms. If an Employee's employment with an Employer is terminated at any time during term 2 and the Employee commences new employment with an Employer at any time during term 2 in the following year, the break in service would have been no more than four full school terms.
